Photographers with Disabilities Proposed Constitution

Adopted on

PART 1

1. Adoption of the Constitution

The organisation and its property will be administered and managed in accordance with the provisions in Parts 1 and 2 of this constitution.

2. The Name

The organisation's name is

Photographers with Disabilities

(and in this document it is called the Charity or is referred to as PWD).

3. The Objects

The Charity's object (the Objects) is

The relief of people with disabilities by advancing their education in the art of photography and by providing facilities in the interests of social welfare with the object of improving their conditions of life.

4. Application of the Income and Property

(1) The income and property of the Charity shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Objects.

(2) A Trustee may pay out of, or be reimbursed from, the property of the Charity reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the Charity.

(3) None of the income or property of the Charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the Charity. This does not prevent:

(a) a member who is not also a Trustee from receiving reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the Charity providing the accounting rules of the Society are adhered to.

(b) a Trustee from:

(i) buying goods or services from the Charity upon the same terms as other members or members of the public;

(ii) receiving a benefit from the Charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the Charity, provided that the Trustee comply with the provisions of sub clause (6) of this clause, or as a member of the Charity and upon the same terms as other members;

(c) the purchase of indemnity insurance for the Trustees against any liability that by virtue of any rule of law would otherwise attach to a Trustee or other officer in respect of any negligence, default breach of duty or breach of trust of which he or she may be guilty in relation to the Charity but excluding:

- (i) fines;
- (ii) costs of unsuccessfully defending criminal prosecutions for offences arising out of the fraud, dishonesty or wilful or reckless misconduct of the Trustee or other officer;
- (iii) liabilities to the Charity that result from conduct that the Trustee or other officer knew or ought to have known was not in the best interests of the Charity or in respect of which the person concerned did not care whether that conduct was in the best interests of the Charity or not.

(4) No Trustee may be paid or receive any other benefit for being Trustee..

(5) A Trustee may:

- (a) sell goods, services or any interest in land to the Charity;
- (b) be employed by or receive any remuneration from the Charity;
- (c) receive any other financial benefit from the Charity,
if :
- (d) he or she is not prevented from so doing by sub-clause (4) of this clause; and
- (e) the benefit is permitted by sub-clause (3) of this clause; or
- (f) the benefit is authorised by the Trustees in accordance with the conditions in sub-clause (6) of this clause.

(6) (a) If it is proposed that a Trustee should receive a benefit from the Charity that is not already permitted under sub-clause (3) of this clause, he or she must:

- (i) declare his or her interest in the proposal;
- (ii) be absent from that part of any meeting or physical or electronic, here after called the meeting, at which the proposal is discussed and take no part in any discussion of it;
- (iii) not be counted in determining whether the meeting is quorate;
- (iv) not vote on the proposal.

(b) In cases covered by sub-clause (5) of this clause, those Trustees who do not stand to receive the proposed benefit must be satisfied that it is in the interests of the Charity to contract with or employ that Trustee rather than with someone who is not a Trustee and they must record the reason for their decision in the minutes. In reaching that decision the Trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with or employing a Trustee against the disadvantage of doing so (especially the loss of the Trustee's services as a result of dealing with the Trustee's conflict of interest).

(c) The Trustees may only authorise a transaction falling within paragraphs

5(a)–(c) of this clause if the Trustee body comprises a majority of Trustees who have not received any such benefit.

(d) If the Trustees fail to follow this procedure, the resolution to confer a benefit upon the Trustee will be void and the Trustee must repay to the Charity the value of any benefit received by the Trustee from the Charity.

(7) A Trustee must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the Trustees in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the Charity and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest) and take no part in the voting upon the matter.

(8) In this Clause 4, “Trustee” shall include any person firm or company connected with the Trustee.

5. Dissolution

(1) If the members resolve to dissolve the Charity the Trustees will remain in office as Charity Trustees and be responsible for winding up the affairs of the Charity in accordance with this clause.

(2) The Trustees must collect in all the assets of the Charity and must pay or make provision for all the liabilities of the Charity.

(3) The Trustees must apply any remaining property or money:

(a) directly for the Objects;

(b) by transfer to any Charity or charities for purposes the same as or similar to the Charity;

(c) in such other manner as the Charity Commission for England and Wales (“the Commission”) may approve in writing in advance.

(4) The members may pass a resolution before or at the same time as the resolution to dissolve the Charity specifying the manner in which the Trustees are to apply the remaining property or assets of the Charity and the Trustees must comply with the resolution if it is consistent with paragraphs (a)–(c) inclusive in sub-clause (3) above.

(5) In no circumstances shall the net assets of the Charity be paid to or distributed among the members of the Charity (except to a member that is itself a Charity).

(6) The Trustees must notify the Commission promptly that the Charity has been dissolved. If the Trustees are obliged to send the Charity’s accounts to the Commission for the accounting period which ended before its dissolution, they must send the Commission the Charity’s final accounts.

6. Amendments

(1) The Charity may amend any provision contained in Part 1 of this Constitution provided that:

- (a) no amendment may be made that would have the effect of making the Charity cease to be a Charity at law;
- (b) no amendment may be made to alter the Objects if the change would not be within the reasonable contemplation of the members of or donors to the Charity;
- (c) no amendment may be made to clause 4 without the prior written consent of the Commission;
- (d) any resolution to amend a provision of Part 1 of this constitution is passed by not less than two thirds of the members present and voting at a general meeting.

(2) Any provision contained in Part 2 of this constitution may be amended, provided that any such amendment is made by resolution passed by a simple majority of the members present and voting at a general meeting.

(3) A copy of any resolution amending this constitution shall be sent to the Commission within twenty one days of it being passed.

Part 2

7. Membership

(1) Initially:-

- (a) Full membership is open to disabled individuals and non disabled individuals over eighteen years of age or organisations who are approved by the Trustees or a Trustee or by a member nominated by the committee to administer membership here after called the Membership Secretary
- (b) Junior membership is open to disabled and non disabled individuals aged over ten years of age but less than eighteen years of age, who are approved by the Trustees or a Trustee or by the Membership Secretary.
- (c) And thereafter other forms of membership as approved by an annual or special general meeting.

- (2)
- (a) The Trustees or Membership Secretary may refuse an application for membership if, acting reasonably and properly, they consider it to be in the best interests of the Charity to refuse the application.
 - (b) The Trustees or Membership Secretary must inform the applicant complying with the Communications Policy of the Society, hereafter referred to as in writing or written, of the reasons for the refusal within twenty eight days of the decision.
 - (c) An individual or organisation refused membership must be notified in writing of their right of appeal against that decision.
 - (d) An individual or organisation has the right to make a written request to The Trustees within twenty eight days of the date of notification as specified in section 2(c) of this clause requesting they reconsider refusal of membership.

- (e) If the Trustees receive a written request to reconsider a refusal of membership complying with 2(d) of this clause above they must reconsider that decision within twenty eight days of its receipt. They may, through a simple majority vote to decide to accept or overrule an earlier decision.
- (f) If the decision to refuse membership was made initially solely by the Membership Secretary or a nominated Trustee they must present their reasons for refusal to the Trustees and then absent themselves from any later voting regarding that individual or organisations membership.
- (g) Following a request to reconsider membership, the decision of the Trustees will be final and will be notified in writing to the individual or organisation within seven days of that decision.
- (h) If an applicant declines a request to sign and accept policies approved by the Trustees enabling the discharge of their Duty of Care or legal obligations the applicant will be deemed to have withdrawn their application for membership.

(3) Membership is not transferable to anyone else.

(4) The Trustees must keep a register of names and addresses of the members

(a) Full members may request in writing that their contact details are shared with other individual, groups of or the entire full membership. That written request must state the reason for that request.

(b) The Trustees will not unreasonably refuse a request to share contact information but reserve the right to do so. An explanation in writing will be sent by the Trustees if a request to share contact information is declined.

(c) The Trustees reserve the right to decide in what format such information is distributed.

(d) All requests to share contact information must be reported to the next available meeting of the Trustees the details and outcomes of which must be recorded within the minutes of that meeting.

(e) The Trustees may make an administration charge to cover costs incurred in distributing requests for the sharing of contact information.

8. Termination of Membership

Membership is terminated if:

(1) the member dies or, if it as an organisation, ceases to exist;

(2) the member resigns by written notice to the Charity unless, after the resignation, there would be less than two members;

(3) ~~any sum due from the member to the Charity is not paid in full within six months of it falling due;~~ See amendment page 20

(4) the member is removed from membership by a resolution of the Trustees that it is in the best interests of the Charity that his or her membership is terminated or if a member refuses to accept any policy of the Charity designed to enable the Trustees to discharge their Duty of Care or legal obligations. A resolution to remove a member from membership may only be passed if:

(a) the member has been given at least twenty eight days' notice in writing of the meeting of the Trustees at which the resolution will be proposed and the reasons why it is to be proposed;

(b) the member or, at the option of the member, the member's representative (who need not be a member of the Charity) has been allowed to make representations to the meeting.

(5) Where the member has, or is alleged to have acted in a manner likely to have caused a breach of the Society's Child Protection or Vulnerable Adults Policy or acted in a grossly unacceptable manner the Trustee's will suspend membership without notice and:-

(a) rights under section 4(a) of this clause will not apply.

(b) the Trustee's will withdraw membership without further notice if any such allegation is proved to be founded.

(c) Full membership will be restored if it is proved the allegation is without foundation.

(d) If the allegation is proved to be partially founded the Trustees will meet to reconsider membership. Rights under section 4(a) and (b) of this clause will apply. Restrictions on the members' activities within the organisation prior to and after that meeting may be applied.

(e) Prior to the adopting of a Child Protection or Vulnerable Adults policy a simple majority of the Trustees may decide that such an action would have breached such a policy if it had been in place.

9. General meetings

(1) The Charity must hold a general meeting within twelve months of the date of the adoption of this constitution.

(2) An annual general meeting must be held in each subsequent year and not more than fifteen months may elapse between successive annual general meetings.

(3) All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called special general meetings.

(4) The Trustees may call a special general meeting at any time.

(5) The Trustees must call a special general meeting if requested to do so in writing by:-

(a) forty percent of the full membership if the total full membership of the organisation is below ten or

(b) at least five members or one tenth of the membership, whichever ever is the greater if the full membership is over ten. The request must state the nature of the business to be discussed. If the Trustees fail to hold the meeting within twenty-eight days of the request, the members may proceed to call a special general meeting but in doing so they must comply with the provisions of this Constitution.

(6) It is anticipated that annual and special general meetings will normally be held within an accessible building, these meetings may however be held in accordance with the Communications Policy of the Society.

10. Notice

(1) The minimum period of notice required to hold any general meeting of the Charity is twenty eight clear days from the date on which the notice is deemed to have been given.

(2) A general meeting may be called by shorter notice, if it is so agreed by seventy five percent of the full members entitled to attend and vote.

(3) The notice must specify the date, time and place or method to be used to hold the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. If the meeting is to be an annual general meeting, the notice must say so.

(4) An annual general meeting may be cancelled providing:-

(a) a situation occurs making cancellation unavoidable.

(b) seven clear days notice is given in writing of its cancellation

(c) the reason for the cancellation is clearly stated within that notice.

(d) a special general meeting may be cancelled if the specific issues to be discussed at that meeting have been satisfactorily resolved and

(e) A minimum of three clear days notice is given of its cancellation in writing stating the reason for its cancellation.

(4) The notice must be given to all the members and to the Trustees.

11. Quorum

(1) No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present.

(2) A quorum is;

(a) At least three full members or their representatives or twenty percent of the full membership to a maximum of fifteen which ever is the greater. No person may be counted more than once for the purpose of establishing a quorum.

(3) The authorised representative of a member organisation shall be counted in the quorum.

- (4) If:
- (a) a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting; or
 - (b) during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall be adjourned . The Trustees must re-convene the meeting and must give at least fourteen clear days' notice of the re-convened meeting stating the date time and place of the meeting.
 - (c) If a Trustee absents themselves because of a possible conflict of interest from an item discussed at a general meeting causing the meeting to no longer be quorate the discussion may continue but no decisions may be made until the meeting is quorate
- (5) If no quorum is present at the re-convened meeting within fifteen minutes of the time specified for the start of the meeting the members present at that time shall constitute the quorum for that meeting.

12. Chair

- (1) General meetings shall be chaired by the person who has been elected as Chair.
- (2) If there is no such person or he or she is not present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for the meeting a Trustee nominated by the Trustees present shall chair the meeting.
- (3) If there is only one Trustee present and willing to act, he or she shall chair the meeting.
- (4) If no Trustee is present and willing to chair the meeting within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding it, the members present and entitled to vote must choose one of their number to chair the meeting.
- (5) The Trustees may propose the chairing of part or the whole of a General Meeting by an Independent Chair, any such proposal must be approved by a simple majority of those present at the meeting. The casting vote is retained by the elected Chair if present at the meeting.

13. Adjournments

- (1) The members present at a meeting may resolve that the meeting shall be adjourned.
- (2) The person who is chairing the meeting must decide the date time method or place at which meeting is to be re-convened unless those details are specified in the resolution.

- (3) No business shall be conducted at an adjourned meeting unless it could properly have been conducted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place.
- (4) If a meeting is adjourned by a resolution of the members for more than seven days, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given of the re-convened meeting stating the date time place or method of the meeting.
- (5) Consideration must be given to alternative methods for resolving disputes necessitating adjournment of meetings and where appropriate these must be used in preference to convening a physical meeting.

14. Votes

- (1) Each member shall have one vote but if there is an equality of votes the person who is chairing the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to any other vote he or she may have.
- (2) Each member shall be entitled to
 - (a) nominate in writing a representative to vote on their behalf
 - (b) submit in writing a vote for or against a proposal or proposed action of the Society.
- (3) A representative may act on behalf of more than one person.
- (4) When voting a representative must notify the Chair of the meeting for whom they are casting votes.
- (5) A representative may also be a member of the Society.
- (6) A resolution in writing signed by each member (or in the case of a member that is an organisation, by its authorised representative) who would have been entitled to vote upon it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective. It may comprise several copies each signed by or on behalf of one or more members.

15. Representatives of Other Bodies

- (1) Any organisation that is a member of the Charity may nominate any person to act as its representative at any meeting of the Charity.
- (2) The organisation must give written notice to the Charity of the name of its representative. The nominee shall not be entitled to represent the organisation at any meeting unless the notice has been received by the Charity. The nominee may continue to represent the organisation until written notice to the contrary is received by the Charity.

(3) Any notice given to the Charity will be conclusive evidence that the nominee is entitled to represent the organisation or that his or her authority has been revoked. The Charity shall not be required to consider whether the nominee has been properly appointed by the organisation.

16. Officers and Trustees

(1) The Charity and its property shall be managed and administered by a committee comprising the Officers and other members elected in accordance with this Constitution. The Officers and other members of the committee shall be the Trustees of the Charity and in this constitution are together called “the Trustees”.

(2) The Charity shall have the following Officers:

A chair,

A secretary,

A treasurer.

A Child protection officer, who may also hold another post.

(3) A Trustee must be a member of the Charity or the nominated representative of an organisation that is a member of the Charity.

(4) No one may be appointed a Trustee if he or she would be disqualified from acting under the provisions of Clause 19.

(5) The number of Trustees shall be not less than three but (unless otherwise determined by a resolution of the Charity in general meeting) shall not be subject to any maximum.

(6) The first Trustees (including Officers) shall be those persons elected as Trustees and Officers at the meeting at which this constitution is adopted.

(7) A Trustee may through the passing of a resolution of the Trustee appoint another person to act and vote on their behalf at a meeting or meetings of the Trustee’s

(8) The Trustees reserve the right to decline requests made under sub clause (7) of this clause if in their opinion insufficient reason exists for its request.

17. The Appointment of Trustees

(1) The Charity in general meeting shall elect the Officers and the other Trustees.

(2) The Trustees may appoint any person who is willing to act as a Trustee. Subject to sub-clause 5(b) of this clause, they may also appoint Trustees to act as officers.

- (3) Each of the Trustees shall retire with effect from the conclusion of the annual general meeting next after his or her appointment but shall be eligible for re-election at that annual general meeting.
- (4) No-one may be elected a Trustee or an Officer at any annual general meeting unless
- (a) prior to the meeting the Charity is given notice that is from a member entitled to vote at the meeting; stating the member's intention to propose the appointment of a person as a Trustee or as an officer and confirming that the person who is to be proposed has consented to the proposal.
 - (b) Where notice is given verbally it must be witnessed by two member of the Society who are not otherwise named in the proposal.
 - (c) They agreed to stand, are proposed by a member entitled to vote at the meeting and seventy five percent of those entitled to vote at the meeting approve of the proposal.
 - (d) And are formally elected by a simple majority of those present and entitled to vote.
- (5) (a) The appointment of a Trustee, whether by the Charity in general meeting or by the other Trustees, must not cause the number of Trustees to exceed any number fixed in accordance with this constitution as the maximum number of Trustees.
- (b) The Trustees may not appoint a person to be an Officer if a person has already been elected or appointed to that office and has not vacated the office.

18. Powers of Trustees

- (1) The Trustees must manage the business of the Charity and have the following powers in order to further the Objects (but not for any other purpose):
- (a) to raise funds. In doing so, the Trustees must not undertake any substantial permanent trading activity and must comply with any relevant statutory regulations;
 - (b) to buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use;
 - (c) to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the Charity. In exercising this power, the Trustees must comply as appropriate with sections 36 and 37 of the Charities Act 1993, as amended by the Charities Act 2006;
 - (d) to borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of the property belonging to the Charity as security for repayment of the money borrowed. The Trustees must comply as appropriate with sections 38 and 39 of the Charities Act 1993, as amended by the Charities Act 2006, if they intend to mortgage land;
 - (e) to co-operate with other charities, voluntary bodies and statutory

- authorities and to exchange information and advice with them;
- (f) to establish or support any charitable trusts, associations or institutions formed for any of the charitable purposes included in the Objects;
 - (g) to acquire, merge with or enter into any partnership or joint venture arrangement with any other Charity formed for any of the Objects;
 - (h) to set aside income as a reserve against future expenditure but only in accordance with a written policy about reserves;
 - (j) to obtain and pay for such goods and services as are necessary for carrying out the work of the Charity;
 - (k) to open and operate such bank and other accounts as the Trustees consider necessary and to invest funds and to delegate the management of funds in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the Trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000;
 - (l) to do all such other lawful things as are necessary for the achievement of the Objects;
 - (m) Trustees, or those representing the trustees, at their discretion may waive or reduce subscriptions or any other charges if, in their opinion, making those charges would cause financial hardship to the individual or would cause that individual to cease or reduce contact with the group.

(2) No alteration of this constitution or any special resolution shall have retrospective effect to invalidate any prior act of the Trustees.

(3) Any meeting of Trustees at which a quorum is present at the time the relevant decision is made may exercise all the powers exercisable by the Trustees.

19. Disqualification and Removal of Trustees

A Trustee shall cease to hold office if he or she:

(1) is disqualified for acting as a Trustee by virtue of section 72 of the Charities Act 1993 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision);

- (1) The Trustees may regulate their proceedings as they think fit, subject to the provisions of this constitution.
- (2) Any Trustee may call a meeting of the Trustees.
- (3) The secretary must call a meeting of the Trustees if requested to do so by a Trustee.
- (4) Questions arising at a meeting must be decided by a majority of votes.
- (5) In the case of an equality of votes, the person who chairs the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.
- (6) No decision may be made by a meeting of the Trustees unless a quorum is present at the time the decision is purported to be made.
- (7) The quorum shall be two or the number nearest to one third of the total number of Trustees, whichever is the greater or such larger number as may be decided from time to time by the Trustees.
- (8) A Trustee shall not be counted in the quorum present when any decision is made about a matter upon which that Trustee is not entitled to vote.
- (9) If the number of Trustees is less than the number fixed as the quorum, the continuing Trustees or Trustee may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.
- (10) The person elected as the Chair shall chair meetings of the Trustees.
- (11) If the Chair is unwilling to preside or is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the Trustees present may appoint one of their number to chair that meeting and to hold the casting vote.
- (12) The Trustees from time to time may appoint an Independent Chair for a meeting or series of meetings. The Independent Chair may give direction to the meeting but will not be counted for the purpose of the quorum. The elected Chair will retain the casting vote.
- (13) The person appointed to chair meetings of the Trustees shall have no functions or powers except those conferred by this constitution or delegated to him or her in writing by the Trustees.
- (14) A resolution in writing signed by all the Trustees entitled to receive notice of a meeting of Trustees or of a committee of Trustees and to vote upon the resolution shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Trustees or (as the case may be) a committee of Trustees duly convened and held.

(15) The resolution in writing may comprise several documents containing the text of the resolution in like form each signed by one or more Trustees.

21. Delegation

(1) The Trustees may delegate any of their powers or functions to a committee of two or more Trustees the terms of any such delegation must be recorded in the minute book.

(2) The Trustees may impose conditions when delegating, including the conditions that:

- the relevant powers are to be exercised exclusively by the committee to whom they delegate;
- no expenditure may be incurred on behalf of the Charity except in accordance with a budget previously agreed with the Trustees.

(3) The Trustees may revoke or alter a delegation.

(4) All acts and proceedings of any committees must be fully and promptly reported to the Trustees.

22. Irregularities in Proceedings

(1) Subject to sub-clause (2) of this clause, all acts done by a meeting of Trustees, or of a committee of Trustees, shall be valid notwithstanding the participation in any vote of a Trustee:

- who was disqualified from holding office;
- who had previously retired or who had been obliged by the constitution to vacate office;
- who was not entitled to vote on the matter, whether by reason of a conflict of interest or otherwise; if, without:
- the vote of that Trustee; and
- that Trustee being counted in the quorum, the decision has been made by a majority of the Trustees at a quorate meeting.

(2) Sub-clause (1) of this clause does not permit a Trustee to keep any benefit that may be conferred upon him or her by a resolution of the Trustees or of a committee of Trustees if the resolution would otherwise have been void.

(3) No resolution or act of

- (a) the Trustees
- (b) any committee of the Trustees

(c) the Charity in general meeting shall be invalidated by reason of the failure to give notice to any Trustee or member or by reason of any procedural defect in the meeting unless it is shown that the failure or defect has materially prejudiced a member or the beneficiaries of the Charity.

23. Minutes

The Trustees must keep minutes of all:

- (1) appointments of Officers and Trustees made by the Trustees;
- (2) proceedings at meetings of the Charity;
- (3) meetings of the Trustees and committees of Trustees including:
 - the names of the Trustees present at the meeting;
 - the decisions made at the meetings; and
 - where appropriate the reasons for the decisions.
- (4) All approved minutes of meetings, unless of a confidential or personal nature, will be made available to members of the Society upon receipt of a written request.

24. Annual Report and Return and Accounts

(1) The Trustees must comply with their obligations under the Charities Act 1993 with regard to:

- (a) the keeping of accounting records for the Charity;
- (b) the preparation of annual statements of account for the Charity;
- (c) the transmission of the statements of account to the Charity;
- (d) the preparation of an Annual Report and its transmission to the Commission;
- (e) the preparation of an Annual Return and its transmission to the Commission.

(2) Accounts must be prepared in accordance with the provisions of any Statement of Recommended Practice issued by the Commission, unless the Trustees are required to prepare accounts in accordance with the provisions of such a Statement prepared by another body.

25. Registered particulars

The Trustees must notify the Commission promptly of any changes to the Charity's entry on the Central Register of Charities.

26. Property

- (1) The Trustees must ensure the title to:
 - (a) all land held by or in trust for the Charity that is not vested in the Official Custodian of Charities; and

(b) all investments held by or on behalf of the Charity, is vested either in a corporation entitled to act as custodian Trustee or in not less than three individuals appointed by them as holding Trustees.

(2) The terms of the appointment of any holding Trustees must provide that they may act only in accordance with lawful directions of the Trustees and that if they do so they will not be liable for the acts and defaults of the Trustees or of the members of the Charity.

(3) The Trustees may remove the holding Trustees at any time.

27. Repair and insurance

The Trustees must keep in repair and insure to their full value against fire and other usual risks all the buildings of the Charity (except those buildings that are required to be kept in repair and insured by a tenant). They must also insure suitably in respect of public liability and employer's liability.

28. Notices

(1) Any notice required by this constitution to be given to or by any person must be:

- (a) in writing; or
- (b) given using electronic communications.

(2) The Charity may give any notice to a member either:

- (a) personally; or
- (b) by sending it by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to the member at his or her address; or
- (c) by leaving it at the address of the member; or
- (d) by giving it using electronic communications to the member's address.

(3) A member who does not register an address with the Charity or who registers only a postal address that is not within the United Kingdom shall not be entitled to receive any notice from the Charity.

(4) A member present in person at any meeting of the Charity shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and of the purposes for which it was called.

(5) (a) Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given.

(b) Proof that a notice contained in an electronic communication was sent in accordance with guidance issued by the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given.

(c) A notice shall be deemed to be given 48 hours after the envelope containing it was posted or, in the case of an electronic communication, 48 hours after it was sent.

29. Rules

- (1) The Trustees may from time to time make rules or bye-laws for the conduct of their business.
- (2) The bye-laws may regulate the following matters but are not restricted to them:
 - (a) the admission of members of the Charity (including the admission of organisations to membership) and the rights and privileges of such members, and the entrance fees, subscriptions and other fees or payments to be made by members;
 - (b) the conduct of members of the Charity in relation to one another, and to the Charity's employees and volunteers;
 - (c) the setting aside of the whole or any part or parts of the Charity's premises at any particular time or times or for any particular purpose or purposes;
 - (d) the procedure at general meeting and meetings of the Trustees in so far as such procedure is not regulated by this Constitution;
 - (e) the keeping and authenticating of records. (If regulations made under this clause permit records of the Charity to be kept in electronic form and requires a Trustee to sign the record, the regulations must specify a method of recording the signature that enables it to be properly authenticated.)
 - (f) generally, all such matters as are commonly the subject matter of the rules of an unincorporated association.
- (3) The Charity in general meeting has the power to alter, add to or repeal the rules or bye-laws.
- (4) The Trustees must adopt such means as they think sufficient to bring the rules and bye-laws to the notice of members of the Charity.
- (5) The rules or bye-laws shall be binding on all members of the Charity. No rule or bye-law shall be inconsistent with, or shall affect or repeal anything contained in, this constitution.
